
Entry premises and source admission remain part of the analysis contract